The Hearings provide an opportunity:

- For former students of Residential Schools to share with the Commissioners and Canada the unique experiences of children who attended the schools
- People to share their experiences directly with the TRC via private statement gathering
- Community leaders to present on behalf of their communities – to share narratives about the community's history
- To learn about the IRS legacy and impacts
- To take part in an important historical event

This is also an opportunity for all Canadians, both Aboriginal and Non-Aboriginal, to learn more about and bear witness to the legacy of the Residential School system.
